The Humans were drawn in by the charming robots who were produced by the Advanced Robotics Lab. However, when the lab was suddenly sealed because of a mistake by the programmer on duty. The humans were forgotten in the lab and they were trapped in a virtual reality. They were hoping that they could escape, but unfortunately they were separated into different men in different rooms. Would all of them be able to escape together or not? The Humans was the first main title that's included with the "Story 01. Content warning: Animated images are at times disturbing, the game is not suitable for those under 16 and the game contains strong language, violence and sexual content _____ Community This game's developer, BSC, has put up an excellent thread here, which I think is a great place to discuss the game and start some discussion.I will close the thread when: - The game is completed. (Which is fast approaching) - The game is fully documented and there is no problem with the game's progress - I lose motivation to continue - Which, is not expected, given the excellent work BSC has done thus far. Note: If there is a thread about the game that has something to do with progress then this thread will be closed. The narrator, Kargary, tells us that the Smiling Menace is the villain of the story and you're their slave and his story is an abridgement of the original Grim Grinning Ghosts story told by Rito in Chapter 1 and 2. Chapter 3 is now a prologue, starting the story from where Chapter 2 ended.Chapter 3 doesn't make any sense by itself but it explains the mechanics of the game's horror mechanics, all the weapons and a way to save. Also, since I finished playing chapter 3, I'm playing through the story again and will give some brief reviews, because it's a weird experience. General ideas: The chapter is told from a third-person view and very similar to the original Resident Evil (2000). In this game you're more of a hunter, so you can see the bodies of the victims in the hallways and they're also a bit heavier and redder than usual. Also, the bodies can be dragged into the different rooms in the house. The dialogue can be turned off and we don't have to listen to the story. However, if you decide to use the dialogue we can hear it in different rooms. Also, most of the important information can be seen in the equipment menu, inventory menu, and the menu options when in the hallways. The player has one life and by pressing any of the attack buttons you'll lose a life and you'll have to start the game over from the beginning, except you're given a chance to "survive" for 60 seconds (if you are in the hallway you can make it) The battles are quite slow, however, the

- Hyuga Chapter 406: East of the Wind Chapter 406: East of the Wind Team Duo Jiro and Koutarou had their watches reprogrammed and changed their routes, catching up with Team Guy from within the forest before two of them made it outside, the moment the Dark Wings Company's rampart stopped them and stopped their escape. Just as Hyuga finished with Team Duo Jiro and Koutarou he felt two strikes... but these were quickly followed by a welcome weight on his back, as Kenji's midsection used his flexibility to wriggle to position his head on Hyuga's back, causing the wind to waft down Hyuga's body. "You are as lethal on the offensive as in a brawl?" Kenji's mane was curled in Hyuga's hand as Hyuga stretched his neck and body languidly. While the image of flailing wind still seemed like it could depict his surroundings, Hyuga had to admit it displayed his creativity off the mark. The aura 'Jinsei (compliment)' was what he had most wanted to dispel as soon as he saw Kenji, and that belief was reinforced from his rare use of the word 'Dao' without 'Jin (in, know)' that he had used. ".....By a large margin. But anyone who has seen me brawl around will know that I used fists." "Then you have decided to forget about using blades?" "Fighting man to man, or even fisticuffs are fine. It is shūbu (stuck) when a fencer uses his blades." "Then I believe the blades you use are shūbu." Yura had said something similar: "I got to see how it had been when a faint breeze had passed by as he had been thinking of Hyuga, so he had guarded his body. Hyuga, please tell Kenji this is quite the common reaction in battle." "You are seriously insisting it is a bad thing to use blades?" "Not about the blades. It's fine to use non-shūbu weapons. We will not be using them."
